

Hawkins Memorial Library Public Bulletin Board Policy

A limited amount of space is available in the library to educational, cultural, or other noncommercial, nonsectarian civic groups for posting notices of meetings and other activities. No commercial notices for profit making organizations or individuals may be displayed.

Political signs to expressly advocate a ballot issue, candidate, or political committee may not be placed on property or buildings owned or leased by the governmental bodies or on the public right-of-way.

Governmental bodies are prohibited from displaying political posters, brochures, flyers, or promotional literature of any type.

All notices posted in the library become the property of the library and may be removed and discarded at any time.

The library does not accept responsibility for returning notices and posters to their owners.
